Our Story

Talal Al Maskri
CHAIRMAN

Passion is the spark that ignited this story and breathed life into it.

On that very day, 25 years ago, when Engineer Talal Al Maskri, founder of TMTEC, found himself in dire need to maintain the ACs in his house, he was surprised that no one could do so but the big companies that he was unable to afford. So he rolled up his sleeves and dismantled the parts of that AC to grasp how it works, and guess what. He fixed it. That day marked the startup of this project. Later on, TMTEC blossomed and bloomed.

From a humble office ran by one person to a Reliable Business Enterprise providing the Best Maintenance Services.
